

John Hunton's method of creating compound curves in sheet balsa for fuselage planking. May have to experiment to find right grade, weight and thickness of balsa sheet to produce the results you want.